ENDORSED BY THE COUNTY.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for lung and throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by all druggists.
Drug store price, 50 cents and $1.00.
Trial bottle free.

STRONG AND ELOQUENT SER- MON.

Rev. O. C. Powers, of High Point, N. C., filled the pulpit of Rev. Dr. M.
B. Adams, at the Baptist Church, of this city, on Sunday night.

Mr. Powers' text was "seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you."

It was a strong, eloquent and stirring appeal, especially to young men and women to make God first, leaving fame and fortune secondary in themselves. He did not mince words but called things by their proper names.

Mr. Powers was for a long time pastor of Providence and Evergreen Baptist Churches, this county, and the large congregation present was an evidence of the high esteem in which he is held.

He fully sustained his reputation as an earnest, pungent and eloquent preacher.

He was warmly greeted by his host of friends at the conclusion of his discourse.

WILL HOLD CAMP MEETING.

Col. Noel Gaines, of this city, will hold a camp meeting at the Tabernacle at Munfordville, Ky., August 15-25.

Col. Gaines has also a number of other engagements of like character in the near future.

TALENTED YOUNG PREACHER PREACHES FAREWELL SER- MON AT HIS HOME.

Rev. Edwin Kagin, one of the finest young men and ablest preachers ever sent out from this city, preached his farewell sermon to his home people on Sunday last, he having been appointed a missionary to Korea by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

Mr. Kagin preached the first of his farewell sermons on Sunday morning at his mother church, the First Presbyterian, filling the pulpit of Rev. J.
R. Zeigler, the pastor. It was a very strong and impassioned appeal for faithful and efficient service in the Master's cause.

At 7:30 in the evening, Mr. Kagin preached at the Leestown Mission, to a large congregation.

It was at this mission that Mr. Ka-gin first began to exercise his gifts as a young minister. His sermon was an able and solemn appeal and last message to his home people by this devoted and able young man.

He carries with him to his distant field among the heathen the earnest prayers of all Christians for his success. He left Thursday for Korea.

THE LIMIT OF LIFE.

The most eminent medical scientists are numerous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade can not be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body.
Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

Little's Early Risers
The famous little pills.

[Written for the Roundabout.] KENTUCKY'S CLASSIC CITIES.

If the wonderful visions which came to Rip Van Winkle were reproduced for the effect, in the morning of our old age, not one of us but would feel like saying, "Is this I?" Returning to our Alma Mater after thirty-seven years of absence seems also as strange, and with but few living present, and a smaller per centage of familiar residences, Georgetown of today rises out of the ashes of conflagration, and losses, a modern, electric lighted boulevard "interurban" coached city.

Rich, influential and broad-minded, she exerts an influence at once commensurate with the humanity of Anglo-Saxon energy and American enterprise.

Coming into the city on the "F. & C." R. R. one is confronted with the usual conventionalities of bill posters and signs galore of drinks—good, bad or indifferent. The "weary traveler" or the "thirsty traveler," taking advantage of the situation expressly formulated for his benefit, "likes it," and is correspondingly benefitted?

The busy, bustling court-farmer avoids temptation, and goes on his way sober and right-minded, intent upon the business which brought him to the mart, and glad of the present opportunity of shaking hands with friends and neighbors.

Court day—the third Monday of every month—is a most attractive one. It has been handed down to the present generation (as every custom has been), and becomes a feature of picturesqueness to be seen and appreciated alone in Kentucky; the characters "in the play" standing out against a blue grass landscape, real as life, and as ideal as are the dreams of our childhood.

The streets on this particular day are filled with country folk intent on shopping for bargains; strangers who are in for a horse trade, or the general public who stand on the street corners to talk politics and swap tales for trade. A most interesting feature is the auctioneer who has such tact and experienced wisdom that every sold animal has a record worthy its size, and every unsold one is destined to become not only a blue ribboner at the fair, but the fastest horse in the State of Kentucky.

Other features of attractiveness are beautiful blooded cattle offered for sale, and colts destined to outshine "Longfellow." There are two hotels and numberless boarding houses. The flouring mill of R. H. Wolf is an up to date establishment; its owners offering your correspondent the courtesy and graciousness of a most pleasing hospitality with a drive over the city and its environments. Out the Cincinnati pike, we saw beautiful blue grass farms and lovely residences.

"Cardome" is one of the most attractive features of environment. The "Indian Refinery Plant" is also a new enterprise, and the Farmers Protective Equity building is looming up in fine shape.
The college property holds its own with wonderful power, and the new president will find no small duties or limitless possibilities before him. Dr.
Dawes, of Louisville, will assume min-
